ITEMS AT THE COURTS.
Cheung Tai, compadore, of Queen's Road, was fined $10 at the Magistracy today for storing 45 cases of spirits of wine without having a dangerous goods licence.
The spirits, valued $300, were also confiscated.

The master of the s.s. Hai Ning, running from Hongkong to Sha U Cheung, was fined $15 at the Magistracy to-day for carrying 147 passengers in excess of the number allowed by his certificate. The craft is only licensed to carry 30 passengers.

The police have been informed of another case having been held up. In this instance the junk was on the way from Castle Peak to Hongkong when a boat containing seven men, armed with knives, came alongside. The robbers boarded the junk, struck the master and foks, drove them into the hold and then commenced their plunder, eventually getting away with a quantity of the cargo as well as clothing and money.

The master of the s.s. Telemachus sued
Ho-yew, the steward, for desertion before Commander Basil Taylor, R.N., at the Marine Court on Monday. Defendant was ordered to forfeit all unpaid wages which may be due to him and was further sentenced to seven days' imprisonment.

Lieut. G. O. Heathcote, R.N., H.M.S.
Janus, summoned the master of the steam tugboat Enderby Star for disobeying the rule of the road, before Commander Basil Taylor, R.N., at the Marine Court on Monday, and a fine of $15 or 4 weeks' imprisonment was imposed. At a Marine Court of Inquiry held later defendant had his certificate suspended for a month.

THE ANHUI CONCESSION.

We learn from the N.O. Daily News that Sir John Lister Kaye's claim against the Chinese Government, on account of the cancellation of the concession he obtained, has been settled for $250,000 sterling.
The story of the Anhui concession, remarks our contemporary, begins in the year 1904 when the London and China Syndicate was formed to exploit the Tungkuashan mines. Subsequently the Anhui gentry contended that work had not been begun within the stipulated time and that the agreement was accordingly void. On this plea they successfully blocked the development of the Tung-kuashan mines. Negotiations dragged on wearily till in the beginning of last year the Chinese Government offered, if the Syndicate would consent to a scheme of joint working, with the Chinese, to guarantee that such an arrangement should be accepted by the Anhui gentry. Sir John Lister Kaye accordingly came out to Peking and drew up a scheme of co-operation (of the most liberal character) only to learn that the Government could not induce the Anhui gentry to consent. The Government then proposed to buy back the concession for $250,000. This offer was twice made and refused and in August Sir John broke off negotiations and returned to London. Up to the end of last June it is true the Syndicate's expenditure amounted only to some $47,000. But considering that the ore in sight was valued at $235,000 the Government's offer must be considered derisory. The Syndicate was understood to have asked $225,000 for the redemption. The government involved in the present arrangement is considered extremely regrettable from the standpoint of British interests generally.

CANTON NOTES.

(From Our Own Correspondent).

CANTON, February 18.

MEMORIAL TO THE THRONE.

A memorial signed by the Viceroy, Admiral Li and the Tartar General has just been sent to the Throne. It contains a full statement of the recent rioting and its suppression. It also states that the ringleleaders have suffered death and it prays for the pardon of the rest of the captured deserters.

MAGISTRATE WOUNDED.
During the disorder that took place before the No. 6 police station some one threw a heavy stone at the Nam Hoi Magistrate who was endeavouring to pacify the crowd. The stone hit the official's head and he was immediately taken back to the Yamen. He has since been unable to go on duty but is said to be now nearly recovered.

TRADE IN CANTON.

The native press reports that trade has been flourishing in the City during the past year. The articles mostly in demand have been foreign piece goods. Handsome profits have been made on cotton goods and people show an increased tendency to buy many other articles of foreign manufacture. The papers are making some capital out of this by bemoaning the people's preference for foreign goods, &c., and saying that a pity it is that so much of China's money should thus go to other countries.

A STREET ROW.

Since Canton has been protected by modern police the gambling stalls which used to line the sides of the wider streets have been abolished. Taking advantage of the late riots, however, several stalls have been placed in the streets and the police soon afraid to interfere for fear of causing further disturbances. On Wednesday evening several Manchus were busily gambling at a stall near the Nam Hoi Yamen. One of the men had his pocket picked of a few cent pieces. He at once accused the gaming master of having robbed him.
There was a noisy dispute, and the Manchu went away. After a short time he returned with several others and commenced an attack on the gaming stall. The owners thereof made a sturdy resistance and the Manchus were driven off. Luckily no one was injured.

DESERTERS AT WHAMPOA.

It is reported that a large number of deserters from the newly-trained troops have established themselves in and around Whampoa. I was told yesterday by a native of that place that these men had been endeavouring to pawn their rifles and uniforms but that the pawnbrokers refused to accept them.

CHINESE RAILWAY DISASTER.

The Suiyangchow correspondent of the Daily News writing under date of February 9, gives particulars of a serious accident which occurred a few days previously at a small station, Lichienai, fifteen miles to the south, on the Hankow-Peking railway.

Several cars of a south bound freight train became detached while running up quite a steep grade near Lichienai. As the people on these cars evidently knew, nothing about putting on the brakes, they very soon started on a backward run.
Now it so happened that another southbound freight also had left Suiyang about this time, and the result was a fatal collision between this train and the runaway cars. The engine of the former was telescoped into the latter. Some say that ten, others that seventeen, persons were killed and a great many wounded. Among the dead were several soldiers and a military official. Some of them were so mutilated that they could not be identified, and the head of one body could not be found.

The reason for this great loss of life is that when goods are shipped, the owner, or some one in his place, must buy a ticket and "sit on" it until the shipment to its destination, as the railroad assumes no responsibility whatever. Every freight train consequently carries scores of passengers beside the freight.

The War Office notifies that facilities are to be given to Jewish soldiers to observe the following festivals during this year: Passover (four days), April 24, 25, 30, and May 1; Pentecost (two days), June 13 and 14; New Year (two days), October 4 and 5; Day of Atonement, October 13;

PARTY FORTUNES.

In these days there can be few stories more engrossing or illuminating in the realm of politics than that told by the years which have contributed to the making of what is known as modern British history. To cast one's mind back over the party struggles which almost within the remembrance of living man, the revelations are not only enlightening; they are to those who think there never were more momentous times than the present not a little surprising. In these days of convulsive excitement the dangers of taking a merely superficial outlook on life cannot be too strongly emphasised. Unpleasant though it be to admit, the fact is that the unthinking crowd ceases to worry about taking lessons from the happenings even of comparatively recent periods. Nor, for that matter, does it stop to think that unconsciously, it is daily churning out history likely to be most far-reaching in its ultimate effects. What is needed to-day is that the nation should give ear to the voices of the past. So we can turn with profit to the story of famous General Elections as told in a recent issue of the Observer.

Beginning with the marvellous struggle of 1784, when CHAMBERLAIN's son was called in by the King to pick up the pieces after the American War, the journal goes on to 1832, "when, after more than a generation of almost continuous supremacy, the old Tory régime toppled down in a catastrophe like nothing seen again until 1906. It was prophesied that the Conservatives would never see office again. But it was the unexpected that happened once more in the way that prevents politics from becoming monotonous, and reminds all majorities that they are mortal. In less than ten years there were four General Elections, and so comment could be so instructive as the plain figures showing how the Liberal-Radical-Repeal Coalition of that day, corresponding exactly to the Radical-Socialist-Nationalist Coalition of ours was broken down. Look at this list:—

Election.	Lib.	Con.	Majority.
1832.....	479.....	199.....	Lib. 300
1835.....	333.....	274.....	Lib. 108
1837.....	349.....	309.....	Lib. 40
1841.....	359.....	368.....	Con. 79

Throughout that period Sir Robert Peel's task in the House of Commons and the country was not dissimilar from the task which Mr. Balfour has so far conducted with at least equal Parliamentary skill." Sir Robert Peel was returned in the last-named year with a mandate to "maintain Protection, but as the result of introducing free imports without resigning his leadership or consulting the country, the hopes of the Tory party were blighted for another generation. At a time like the present, when the fiscal question is such a burning issue, it is worth noting, as the Observer points out, that it is quite erroneous for superficial students of our political history to imagine that Protection perished in 1846 without a serious subsequent struggle. In two General Elections after the victory of Cobdenism the two parties—ran neck and neck. Here are the figures of the drawn battle, such as we have never known in our modern period of more violent electoral fluctuations:—

Lib.	Con.	Majority.
1847.....	329.....	327.....
1852.....	323.....	331.....

The situation was of course, therefore, forward materially affected by the Pelites turning over to Liberalism. Mr. Gladstone, who even at fifty was still thought of as a likely Conservative leader, joined PALMERSTON, whom he hated only less than DISRAELI, "and in this way the personal equation of a Chancellor of the Exchequer opened a wholly new political epoch! After Palmerston's death General Elections began to be convulsive and exciting. Under PALMERSTON's ascendancy the middle-class electorate, which ruled England from 1833 to 1868, made Ministers more or less in its own worthy image, as follows:—

Lib.	Con.	Majority.
1857.....	373.....	331.....
1859.....	347.....	307.....
1865.....	350.....	290.....

But then came, at last, the inevitable development of which we are only now dimly beginning to realise the full meaning. Enter upon the scene the working man. As was to be expected, the granting of household suffrage had its reflection in the next fight, which was the first that GLADSTONE could really call his own. He secured the largest majority that had been known for years. The figures were:—

Lib.	Con.	Majority.

And, as we can now see, the new electoral and electioneering epoch was fairly opened. That was the year when Mr. CHAMBERLAIN first commenced to take an important part in politics. And though nobody in the country marked the coincidence and the contrast at the time, that was also the year of the great Japanese Revolution, which has altered the politics of the world almost as much as Household Suffrage and the reign of increasing absolutism of the working man have altered the politics of Great Britain.

The full effects of that transforming period were at first concealed by a strange triumph, utterly unexpected by the Conservatives themselves, almost up to the moment when it occurred, which crowned at last, after years of electoral disappointments, the political career of Mr. DISRAELI. The election of 1874 resulted in a Conservative majority of 52, small in its way but remarkable when one remembers the temper of the age. Once again the pendulum swung back and six years later Mr. GLADSTONE, after the famous Midlothian campaign, went back with a majority of 176—easily the largest that had been registered in the half of the century since the great Reform Bill. The next election was in 1886 and although in the meantime the agricultural labourer had received the vote, the cries of "Majuba" and "Gordon" ringing through the boroughs made against the Liberal party. However, the result of the fight was practically a tie, for the Liberals had polled 334 to the 336 secured by the Conservatives and Nationalists. This situation decided Mr. GLADSTONE for Home Rule and he was thus able to convert a hopeless position into one by which he wielded a majority as huge as that of 1880, the coalition advantage being precisely 170. But as is known, the Home Rule Bill was thrown out and in 1886 the Unionists made their appearance with a majority of 118. What has happened since is known to all; till 1906 the newly-created party held office with the exception of a brief period between 1892 and 1895.

History repeats itself. Once more the great Liberal party, which would hardly be recognised, we fancy, by the Whigs of days gone by, finds itself at the mercy of the Irish. But Mr. Asquith dare not make the rash plunge which his distinguished predecessor did; and the Nationalists refuse a compact unless he does. What will happen time alone can tell. At any rate we live in stirring days and must be prepared for almost anything. In 1832 and again in 1906 we were told that Toryism was dead for ever. Viewing the present dilemma of the Liberals who would so declaim to-day?

THE H. & W. DOCK COMPANY.
Economy combined with efficiency are the watchwords of the new management of the Hongkong and Whampoa Dock Company, Ltd., and we do not see, if these ideals are pursued with reasonable circumspection, why the big corporation should not, despite the strenuous competition which it has now to face, resume its former position as one of the best paying companies in the Far East. The splendid days of its early prime have gone never to return, days when it knew no rivals practically on the whole stretch of the China coast, and when like the Indian Nabobs of Clive's era it had only to shake the pagoda tree at its own convenience to bring forth rich dividends for its shareholders. Easy times invariably bring about easy methods and there was undoubtedly in days not so very far remote a fine free and lavish way of doing things at the Hongkong and Whampoa Docks which was scarcely in accordance with the best interests of those who had invested money in the concern. But we gather from Mr. Gresson's speech at the meeting held on Monday that the Directors have boldly faced the situation, have remodelled the system, reduced the staff to limits more in accordance with the exigencies of the time, and have resolutely written down the book-values of the stock and equipment. Economies at the docks have already effected a monthly saving of $7,000, while office expenses have been reduced from $30,500 to $19,980. This is a very good showing for the opening months of the new management, and now that trade currents seem to be definitely moving along the upward curve again, we may reasonably anticipate that at the next half-yearly meeting the Directors will have a much more favourable set of figures to place before shareholders than those just discussed.

NEWS OF THE DAY.
Mr. Kair Hardie, speaking at Mount Ash in Glamorgan, predicts that the House of Lords will pass the Budget and will be passed by the House of Commons, side by side.

The saw-mills at Foochow originally owned by Messrs. Dodwell and Co., and recently purchased by a Chinese Company, have been entirely burnt out. When and how the fire originated is difficult to discover, says the Echo, but it is thought spontaneous combustion in the saw-dust yard led to the disaster. The mills were well covered by insurance.

The Nippon Maru, due to sail from Hongkong on February 26, will undergo her subsidy trial run at Nagasaki this voyage and so will be obliged to omit Shanghai. The same liberal arrangements for passengers who do not care to stay on the ship during her four days' detention at Nagasaki as those made in the case of the Teoyo Maru and the Chiyu Maru have been announced by the management.

THOROUGHLY TESTED.
CHAMBERLAIN'S Cough Remedy has been examined by an eminent analytical chemist who certified that it contained no narcotics. It is not only a safe and harmless medicine but the best in use for all ailments of the throat and lungs.

The foreign residents of Shamshu Canton, some of them having witnessed the performance of "La Mascotte," are enthusiastically about having their talented juveniles to perform at Canton and have unanimously requested Mr. A. E. da Silva to take his troupe there. Indeed the matter has already taken definite shape for subscriptions have been promised to cover all expenses. A performance will be given at Canton on Friday evening. The inhabitants of Macao, we understand, have also made a similar request.

The Peninsular and Oriental Company have acquired Messrs. W. Lund and Son's Blue Anchor Line, trading to and from Australia via the Cape. Lloyd's Register of Shipping gives the Commonwealth Geelong, Narragansett, and Wilkes, as constituting the line and totalling 29,600 tons. The authorised capital of the Blue Anchor Line is £200,000 in shares of £5, of which £229,750 has been subscribed and called up. There are also four per cent. debentures for £250,000, part of £150,000 authorised. The acquisition of the fleet will enable the P. & O. Company to participate in the large volume of trade continuously passing between this country and Australia by the long sea route. The purchase price has not transpired, but one of the shipping newspapers hints that the basis of the sale is the cost price of the Blue Anchor fleet, less 6 per cent. per annum for depreciation, and plus a sum for the valuable goodwill of the business.—L. and C. Express.

THE QUEEN'S ROAD NUISANCE.
Complaints of the disgraceful state of Queen's Road after dusk, when the thoroughfare becomes infested with the most undesirable character of women, continue to be made without much avail. The nuisance is now probably more pronounced than it ever has been in the history of the Colony. These fallen creatures do not hesitate to accost the most respectable people as was evidenced last evening, when, between 6.30 and 7 p.m., Sir Henry May, Colonial Secretary, was stopped by no less than three of these women. The third of these he allowed to be arrested by a European constable who happened to be in the vicinity, and he proceeded to her at the Magistrate's to-day. After hearing Sir Henry's evidence the Worship (Mr. E. R. Ballif) found the offender guilty.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The drizzly rain of the last 24 hours has reduced the condition of Hongkong thoroughfares to a state of sticky mud—most unpleasant for pedestrians.

The Manila Carnival this year has been so economically managed that not only has the big deficit of last year been wiped out but a substantial balance is carried forward.

While H. M. S. Bulwark was at gunnery practice at Portland, on February 14 a twelve inch gun went off accidentally and the shell passed through the funnel of the cruiser Natal.

After a prolonged tariff war, an Agreement between Canada and Germany has been concluded. Canada remits the duties, while Germany admits certain Canadian imports under the minimum tariff.

The Minnesota of the G.N.P. line is to institute a direct service between Manila and the United States, making the Philippine port her point of departure, instead of Hongkong, which will be omitted on the homeward run.

The new army dirigible has made an hour's successful flight, with four passengers, over Ladang's Plain. It travelled at a good speed even against a strong wind. The dirigible is fish-shaped, and it steered well.

Some excitement has been caused at Fremantle by the finding of a ship's buoy on the South beach. The name is almost worn off, but the letters A H are decipherable, and in the opinion of some people the buoy belonged to the Warrah.

Over a week ago our Singapore correspondent telegraphed as an account of the damage done to the Johore State railway by the recent rains. We now learn that over ninety miles of the line are damaged and several months must elapse before the railway can again be in public use. Fortunately none of the bridge work has suffered.

Owing to the unprecedented demand lately for De Mente fruits, we learn the local market has been practically depleted. Cape Ports have not been backward in appreciating those excellent dainties, and as a result of the present demand have been disappointed in not having their orders filled. We should advise our coastal friends to book ahead.

By kind permission of Col. Prior and the officers, the Band of the 15th Rajputs will play the following programme of music at the King Edward Hotel, during dinner, on Thursday:—
Quickmarch German Sullivan
Overture Foot and Pantomime Suppe
Valse Gold and Silver Franz Lehr
Selection Trebizond Offenbach
Pleasure Paganini Solo Beckett
Serenade La Polonoise Haymann

The Java Government, in working its tin mines in Banka, is ever mindful of the coolies who delve there for revenue purposes. Those who care to return to China are provided by government with passages. About 3,300 coolies are estimated to return to their homeland in February and March this year, at a cost of 72,600 guilder. An official will accompany them to see that all goes well with them on arrival in China.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

To-day is the birthday of the Emperor of China.

A very enjoyable bal masque was given by some naval officers at the City Hall on Monday night.

To-day is Washington's birthday and the American communities of Shanghai, Kobe and Yokohama are celebrating the event by giving public balls.

The Hon. W. Chatham C.M.G., Director of Public Works, Mrs. and Miss Chatham returned to the Colony to-day from the North by the German Mail.

The Rev. R. G. Manning, Assistant Chaplain of Holy Trinity Cathedral, Shanghai, and Secretary of the foreign Y.M.C.A., has been nominated to a chaplaincy in the Indian Army.

Admiral Winslow has selected as his flag commander Commander A. T. Darby. This officer was attached to his staff in the Sapphire for torpedo duties during 1906-6. His flag-lieutenant will be Lieut. P. L. E. Noble, M.V.O.

Among the P. & O. officers who have received the newly instituted Royal Naval Reserve decoration are Capt. C. W. Bennett, Capt. G. C. Talbot, Capt. J. W. Andrews, Capt. M. W. Merrick, Capt. Owen Jones, Captain G. H. C. Weston, Capt. G. W. Cockman, Capt. W. C. Greger, who all hold the rank of Commander; while among the Lieutenants are Messrs A. O. Cooper, and G. E. Bridge, of the C.P.R.

Mr. A. Brooke-Smith, whom many will remember in Hongkong, who was a member of a shooting-party that had gone up-country from Shanghai for the holidays, was accidentally shot in the foot. The accident, the N. O. Daily News understands, was not originally a very serious one, but unfortunately nearly twenty-four hours elapsed before Mr. Brooke-Smith could reach Shanghai, and the wound was thus made worse than it should have been. Much sympathy is felt for the patient, who is at present in the General Hospital.

The Waterwitch, survey-ship in Chinese waters, is about to go out of commission; her two years expiring in March next. She was recommissioned at Hongkong on March 6th, 1908, by Lieut. and Commander Henry P. Douglas. On recommissioning, Lieut. and Commander R. L. Hancock has been appointed to the command. This officer has been in the service for 13 years, and has been employed on surveying duties for the past three or four in Australian waters as first officer of the Fantome.

There has just been registered in Edinburgh with a capital of £150,000, in 210 shares, the firm of Richardson, Findlay and Co., Ltd., to take over the business of merchants hitherto carried on as Richardson and Findlay in Glasgow, Findlay, Richardson and Co., in Kobe and Yokohama, Findlay and Co., in Holo and Manila. The signatories are R. E. Findlay, N. A. Black, J. Reid, W. G. Crum, all of 34, West George Street, Glasgow, and J. Marshall, of Kobe. It is a private company. The first directors are Messrs R. E. Findlay, N. A. Black, W. G. Crum and J. Marshall.

On the 28th inst. the Rev. Bishop Domènec Porciani celebrates his silver jubilee as a priest. His Lordship who was born in December 1861 at Paterno, near Milan, arrived in Hongkong as a missionary from Italy in 1884, being engaged in mission work in Kwangtung until 1905, when he was elected Vicar Apostolic in succession to the late Mons. Pissardi. Bishop Porciani was consecrated Bishop on October 1, 1905, and during his sojourn in Hongkong has made a host of friends who will no doubt wish him all happiness and a long life to remain amongst them, with cordial good wishes on the attainment of his silver jubilee.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CHOLERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY.

THIS remedy always wins the good opinion if not the praise of those who use it. The quickness with which it effects, even in the most severe cases, makes it a favorite everywhere. GALES AT HOME.

GREAT DAMAGE IN LONDON

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

London, February 21.

Yesterday was the fourth day of the gale which has been experienced in Great Britain.

The hurricane still continues, and the damage done in London is the greatest that has been caused for many years. Houses are unroofed, and shop-fronts blown in; havoc has been played in the parks and the roof of the National Gallery has been damaged to such an extent that the Turner Room has had to be closed.

The King's Speech.

LORDS AND COMMONS.

Government Proposals

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

London, February 22.

Parliament was opened yesterday, Prince of Wales to TOWN AFRICA. The King's Speech stated that our relations with foreign Powers continue friendly, and referred to the Union of South Africa and the sending of H. R. H. the Prince of Wales on an extended journey through our South African possessions before the opening of the new Legislative Council.

INDIAN AFFAIRS.
The speech also referred to the extension of the Legislative Councils in India, which entered with good promise upon the enlarged duties and responsibilities entrusted to them.

INCREASED NAVAL EXPENDITURE.
The estimates for the ensuing year had been framed with the utmost desire for economy but the requirements for the naval defense of the Empire had made it necessary to propose a substantial increase in the cost of the Navy.

EFFECT OF BUDGET DELAY.
The expenditure authorized by the last Parliament was being duly incurred, but as the revenue required to meet it had not been provided by the imposition of taxation, recourse had been had to temporary borrowing. "Arrangements must be made at the earliest possible moment," the speech continued, "to deal with the financial situation thus created."

LORDS VESTS COMMONS.
"Recent experience," the speech went on, "has disclosed serious difficulties due to the recurring differences of strong opinion between the two branches of the Legislature, and proposals will be laid before the House, with all convenient speed, to define the relations of the Houses and so secure the undivided authority of the Commons over finance and its pre-eminence in legislation."

ATTITUDE OF THE LORDS.
His Majesty continued, "we should provide that the House of Lords should be so constituted and empowered as to exercise impartially, in regard to the proposed legislation, functions of initiation, revision and, subject to proper safeguards, of delay."

BUDGET SAFE FOR PASSAGE.
Lansdowne's Caustic Home Rule Comment.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

London, February 22.

In the House of Lords, Lord Lansdowne congratulated the Government on its decision to give priority to the question of finance.

The Opposition's opinion on the Budget was, he said, unchanged, but if it were again passed by the Commons their Lordships would not only be ready to pass it but would expedite it to the utmost.

If, said Lord Lansdowne, the Government's programme thereafter is to sterilize the House of Lords in order to clear the way for Home Rule, then he should be amazed at the audacity of the Government making such proposals on the strength of the result of the election.

The Japanese Government has introduced in the Diet a bill granting to foreigners the right of owning land. This privilege is to be granted on reciprocal terms.

STAR FERRY ACCIDENT.

The Star Ferry boat which left Kowloon at ten minutes to nine this morning met with a mishap on arriving on the other side of the harbour. She had just glided into position alongside the little pontoon when the gangway was prematurely lowered. The result was that as the boat was drifting slightly backwards the gangway began to move along the platform. About half a dozen of the passengers had crossed it when it was seen that unless the boat ceased to move an accident must occur. The gangway still continued to sweep along the pier and on coming in contact with a stout post was wrenched clean off, ironwork and woodwork snapping simultaneously. For a time it was impossible to get the ferry-boat sufficiently close for the passengers to land, but eventually the difficulty was overcome and the people on board were able to get off by using the lower deck. The boat was later taken off the service for repairs.

THE ALLANA CASE.

One Charge Dropped.

The case in which S. E. Allana is charged with obtaining money by false pretences, embezzlement, and stealing a watch, was again called at the Magistrate's Court this afternoon. Mr. P. W. Goldring appeared to prosecute, and Mr. E. P. Hett defended.

Mr. Goldring said it would perhaps be rather invidious on the part of his client to go any further with certain charges because he understood charges were being brought by another party. His Worship would see that there were a great many complications in the case, and he (Mr. Goldring) understood that other charges were being brought through Messrs Wilkinson and Grist. He (Mr. Goldring) had a certificate from Dr. Forsyth saying that the complainant, Marican, was too ill to attend the Court that day. It would therefore be more satisfactory if a formal remand were granted, as they could not well go on without Marican. He (Mr. Goldring) was not trying to delay the case, but every thing was against him. He was quite ready to go on so far as he could, but he had not been able to get the books from Marican.

Mr. Hett asked that the case proceed. It was quite obvious that Mr. Goldring could have got the books. He had had a week in which to do it.

Mr. Goldring said that was not quite fair. Marican came into his office yesterday and he (Mr. Goldring) handed him some papers and asked him to go through them and give him the fullest instructions next morning. Late the same night he was telephoned to say he was dead, but would try and see him in the morning. This morning, however, he got the certificate saying he was ill. He (Mr. Goldring) could not go and ransack the house.

Mr. Hett said surely Mr. Goldring could have taken the trouble himself and gone in a rickshaw to see Marican. His Worship would recollect that last time they were unable to proceed because of Marican. Now they had Marican but could not get the books. It was merely a "Box and Cox" arrangement; they never got any further. It really was not fair to defendant. On every occasion Mr. Goldring kept on suggesting that other charges were to be brought, but he (Mr. Hett) had every reason to believe that they were not to be taken at all. First it was the Crown Solicitor and now it was Messrs Wilkinson and Grist. It was only done to cause defendant.

His Worship—Is it any use to put Marican in the box without any books?

Mr. Hett replied that he wished his friend to proceed as far as he could. He (Mr. Hett) once had the unpleasant experience at the Magistrate's of having a case dismissed because his client, who lived at Canton, was delayed by the typhoon. He asked that precedent be followed. Let the case either proceed or be withdrawn.

His Worship—The case proceeded as far as was possible.

Mr. Goldring said his client was willing if defendant returned the watch and chain to let that matter drop. The fact that defendant refused to return it made the case more difficult.

His Worship thought that was a matter for settlements outside.

Mr. Goldring—Well, your Worship, I wish to withdraw the third charge of false pretences on the question of the ticket. I do not think the charge of false pretences can lie, but I wish to substitute a charge of larceny of the ticket.

His Worship—How can I, Mr. Goldring?

Mr. Goldring—Well, I am in your Worship's hands.

His Worship—It was a gift to him; on various promises, perhaps.

Mr. Goldring—Well, I am in your Worship's hands. If you think fit, I will let the matter drop.

Mr. Hett—My friend did endeavour to settle this case with me. It was quite without prejudice. I think my friend's suggestion was that we would consider that the conversation had never taken place, and now he tells all about it.

His Worship—I don't think that will prejudice defendant's position.

Mr. Hett—At any rate I don't think my friend ought to refer to it.

Mr. Goldring—Perhaps, I ought not to have done so.

Moosa Ebrahim, who was brought out in custody from Victoria Gaol, where he is serving a sentence, gave evidence against defendant, who was simply accused of being in the firm of Allana and Co., while witness was in charge of the books. Owing to the absence of the books witness was unable to complete his evidence.

His Worship intimated that next time the whole prosecution must be ready to proceed.

Mr. Goldring—I was hoping to finish to-day; it was not my fault. I am sorry, because I want it finished—either that he be committed for trial or dismissed; one or the other.

The hearing was again adjourned until Tuesday next.

HONGKONG SHIELD COMPETITION.

KING ALFRED v. NAVAL YARD.

The second of the semi-finals in the above competition was played off on the Hongkong Club ground last evening, teams from H.M.S. King Alfred and the Naval Yard meeting to decide who should face the Buffs in the final. Both teams were at full strength and were as follows:—

King Alfred—Tugwell; Carlisle, Haw; McLean, Barran, Richardson; Steel, Lee; Fleming; Gardiner; Hobbins.

Naval Yard—Ryall; Joughin, Harding; Anderson, Brown, Macey; Wilks, Watkins; Reid; Sullivan, Dalziel.

On a turf rather slippery on account of a slight rain prevailing the flagmen set the ball in action by kicking it into the goal, the Yarders being one man short in the back division. Play opened very brightly and the defence of both sides early had to exert itself. Once the Yarders gave a free for hands not far outside the goal, the ball was kicked into the goal by the Yarders. The Yarders continued to trouble the blue-jackets and looked like penetrating the defence. Receiving a long pass from the opposite wing Steel shot well at goal and Tugwell had all his work cut out to keep the ball out of the net. Still the Naval Yard left wing made matters uneasy for the King Alfred, Sullivan making another meritorious effort. Then a corner was forced into the right. The ball was beautifully placed, dropping right into Tugwell's arms. He was not pressed but skillfully cleared. Another free-kick saw the Yarders just outside the area saw the ball just inside the goal.

The pressure was well maintained, King Alfred not getting a look in. After several narrow squeaks for the blue-jackets their citadel fell. A hot shot by Reid struck the bar and the ball rebounded to Dalziel who tested the goal-keeping well with a shot which he never looked dangerous. Next he rushed the keeper through. Naval Yard renewed their attack and within five minutes were again rewarded, faulty play on the part of the K. A. backs enabling Reid to slip in and notch goal No. 2.

After this a dashy play men made one or two erratic rushes to the goal, but they never looked dangerous. Naval Yard scored their third point goal by a shot which the third point goal was scored by the Yarders. Their opponents were hotly pressed and in the excitement Carlisle handled the ball. Sullivan took the penalty and sent the ball well into the corner of the net. At the other end Steel made a couple of good efforts, one of which provided a corner, but the Yard defence prevailed. No further scoring took place before the interval when the Naval Yard led by 3 goals to nil.

From the restart the Yarders instantly pressed, Anderson heading past following a shot by Wilks. Nippy mid-field play followed, the halves of both teams holding the opposing forwards in check. Once the Yarders were well inside the flagmen sent the ball well into the corner of the net. At the other end Steel made a couple of good efforts, one of which provided a corner, but the Yard defence prevailed. No further scoring took place before the interval when the Naval Yard led by 3 goals to nil.

Rugby.

CRICKETERS OF THE COLONY.
It will interest all keen sportsmen to learn that it has been arranged that a series of matches shall be played between teams representing the Navy, Army, and the Hongkong Football Club, for the Rugby Championship Cup, to be competed for annually, has been entered for by a number of persons interested in the welfare of the game.

The first match will be played on the Club ground at 5 p.m. on Wednesday, the 24th.

The following players will represent the Hongkong Football Club:—Shaw, Oliver, Kilby, Bayly, Claxton, J. H. Lawrence, A. F. Bapista, A. Remedio, C. A. C. Rodriguez, A. A. Gutierrez, A. G. de Rocha.

LICENSING BOARD.

On Monday evening the newly constituted Licensing Board held its first meeting at the Legislative Council Chamber. Hon. Sir Henry May presided and there were present:—Hon. Mr. A. M. Thomson, Messrs T. F. Hough, D. W. Craddock, A. Shilton Hooper and G. A. Woodcock, secretary.

APPLICATION RETURNED.
The first application was from J. Kamel, residing at 37, Queen's Road Central, for a hotelkeeper's adjacent license to sell by retail intoxicating liquors on the premises under the sign of "The Bristol Restaurant."

The Secretary said there were no police objections. He then read a petition from a number of residents in the vicinity praying the Board to refuse the application on the ground that there were no less than ten full, two adjacent, and numerous other restaurants already carrying on business in Queen's Road, and the granting of further licenses would be detrimental to the value of property and to the proper regulation of peace and good order. It was generally undesirable that more licenses should be granted, and if this application was granted many other restaurants would desire to obtain licenses in respect of their premises.

Mr. R. A. Harding, who appeared for the applicant, put in a letter signed by numerous residents in the vicinity in favour of the application.

Mr. Harding stated that the applicant was the nephew of Mrs. Meyer, who held a publican's license in respect of the Colonial Hotel. The house in respect of which he applied had already had a license. It was previously occupied by Mr. Bartolone and when he moved from this house to Chester Road he applied for a transfer of the license to the new premises he took and those premises were now closed. Therefore, if there was any necessity for a license before the same necessity still existed.

The Chairman—I notice that one of the signatories is also a signatory to the petition opposing it. That is not unusual in a case like this.

Mr. Harding—This is not granting a new license, but renewing an old one. Therefore, I ask that the present application be granted. There is accommodation for two licenses.

Mr. Hooper—This is a different sort of license to the one held by Bartolone, whose license was held under different conditions. Mr. Harding—But I think Bartolone did not keep barbers. This man takes barbers.

Mr. Hooper—You cannot say this in connection to the old license.

Mr. Harding—Not exactly. Bartolone did not take barbers. This man does. Mr. Shilton Hooper opposed the application. In the first instance he submitted that a restaurant license would be sufficient to meet the requirements of the house, and pointed out that in granting a restaurant adjacent license the Yarders had power to impose conditions as to the manner in which the drinks should be served with meals. Under the old adjacent license the intention and object of the Ordinance was evaded by simply placing sandwiches on the table, and he submitted that this application could be evaded in a similar manner.

Mr. Hooper is a restaurant man continuing during the whole course of the day, and therefore a sandwich served with a drink would be sufficiently within the license, whereas with restaurant adjacent license the justices were entitled to impose any conditions they liked as to when drinks were to be served.

The Court considered the application in camera and on resuming Mr. Kamel was informed that his application was refused.

THE PEAK HOTEL.
The next application was from P. O. Peuster for a hotelkeeper's adjacent license to sell by retail intoxicating liquors at the Peak Hotel.

Mr. E. J. Gedge, who appeared for the applicant, stated that the character of the hotel was very well known. It was full of guests, consisting at the present moment of naval and military men, their wives and families.

The Chairman—Are there any special circumstances?

Mr. Gedge—No, I will just ask for the license.

Mr. Craddock—What form of license?

Mr. Gedge—An adjacent license.

Mr. Hooper—There is a billiard room?

Mr. Gedge—Yes.

Mr. Hooper—What happens if there are guests not residents of the hotel? Cannot they have any drink?

Mr. Chairman—No.

Mr. Hooper—Except at the expense of the host.

Mr. Gedge—Guests in the hotel can have drinks in the billiard room if they order and pay for them.

The Secretary pointed out that according to the Ordinance drinks could only be had in the dining room and in connection with regular meals.

The application was granted.

LORD LIGHT ON TROOPSHIP LIFE.

From the many complaints that reach the office of the United Services Gazette from regiments returning from abroad, and from others who have gone on foreign service, there appears ample grounds for the War Office appointing a departmental committee of investigation to inquire into the conditions of the life led in those days by the rank and file on board the transports. Life on board the old troopships was not altogether of a rosy character, but since the troopship service was abolished, and transports engaged to convey troops, the existence on board for the soldier, as well as for his family, seems to have increased in discomfort, not to say hardship, and to such an extent that it seems a wonder a military Clarke Russell has not made his appearance before this to depicture the life in its true colours. Nobody can blame the authorities at the War Office for securing these transports at the lowest possible cost to the public, but certainly it should not be at the sacrifice to which the troops appear to be subjected. Want of accommodation, bad cooking, bad feeding are among the least of the evils complained of to us, for there is a far more serious charge of lack of ordinary privacy for the women and children, whose conditions of life on board these transports are characterized as little short of disgraceful. There was none of this at the old troopships, when the whole of the troops required for the Service formed a portion of the Royal Navy, and were manned by naval crews.
